Rules:

- All USSS and NYSSRA rules apply. For details, please review your 2025 USSS and NYSSRA Competition Guides.
- It is the racers responsibility to turn in his/her bib after the second run. Bib collection will take place in the finish area following the second run. If a racer will not compete in the second run, bibs must be returned to the LMSC yurt. Failure to return a bib will result in a $40 charge to the racer.
- All racers must conduct themselves in an appropriate manner. Unsportsmanlike conduct, obscene language or disrespect to race personnel, Labrador Mountain staff, or other skiers will result in sanctioning.
- Racers are entitled to inspect the course prior to each run; however, they may not ski through any of the gates in advance of their run. Side-slipping is acceptable.
- Disqualification (DSQ) and Did-Not-Finish (DNF) assignments will be posted via AdminSkiRacing and text to team captains. Any protest must be made to a jury member within 15 minutes of the posting. A protest fee of $50 applies.
- If a racer believes he/she has been interfered with during his/her run, the racer must leave the course immediately, notify the nearest gate judge, then proceed to the finish area and ask to speak to the referee for a re-run. Reruns are provided on a provisional basis.
